Sydney was nominated by the Dean of Students to run for 2021 Class President at Cary Academy. She accepted an invitation for the Young Founders Institute, which holds entrepreneurship events to shape the next generation of innovators. Sydney was also accepted into the North Carolina State University Scientists in Training Program and is a member of the Cary Academy Judicial Student Board, where she worked with faculty to listen and vote on disciplinary school matters. She is also a facilitator for the Cary Academy Dialog Across Differences. As a facilitator, she works with community leaders, students, and faculty about emerging diversity topics, current events, and change mechanisms. Sydney won the 2019 Volleyball Offensive Player of the Year for Junior Varsity at Cary Academy.
